3EME SEXE (troisième sexe) brings a new sound into electro pop, and this is pure analog! By using minimal recording techniques and only the real hand-played vintage stuff, (analog keyboards, synths, effects), rock 'n' roll guitars, and stewardess-like vocals, 3EME SEXE creates an anarchistic universe influenced by sixties beat, sweet seventies pop, Yé-Yé, and French Chanson.

The creative mind behind 3EME SEXE is musician, composer and producer Justin Schoening. 3EME SEXE has been around the electronic scene since 2006, and Justin has had several people joining him before ending up with the hot constellation of today: Christelle Paris (vocals/recitation) and Lola Renault (additional guitars).

Christelle and Justin sing in English, French and German – in whichever language the actual lyrics sound better.

The extraordinary video clips of 3EME SEXE are directed by Christina Palmegaard who works at Lars von Trier's film production company Zentropa.

This new album has been mixed and mastered by 3EME SEXE and Mr. Thomas Bon De Gaard (of Pornorama fame!) in his Funkwerk studio in Copenhagen.
